

I am concerned that Sinclair is forcing its local stations to air a political commercial which is a one-sided attack on John Kerry under the guise of a "news" story. Unless they provide equal time for an opposing argument in an equivalent prime time slot, I see this as a violation of their broadcast license and urge the FCC to investigate the possibility of license revocation.